

Bellville Methodist Church is seeking and praying for the Lord to provide an outstanding candidate for the full-time position of Director of Children's Ministries (DCM). The DCM will share a love for Jesus with the children (infant-5th grade) and parents of Bellville Methodist Church and the community in cooperation with the Director of Family Ministries and other staff. This position has a focus on seeing our young disciples become disciple makers who are active participants in seeing lives changed by the power of Jesus Christ. The DCM will serve as a recruiter, encourager, trainer, and facilitator for the volunteer positions in all areas of children's ministry and also manage nursery staff. The DCM must demonstrate an active commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord, good people skills, time management skills, organizational skills, communication skills, and the ability to develop and oversee the annual children's ministry budget in a way that effectively utilizes church resources and maximizes ministry opportunities.

We are confident that God has placed a calling in the heart of someone to fill this position that enjoys working on a team, is relational and passionate about leading our children to follow Jesus, can connect with families in the church as well as reach out to families in the community, is able to take initiative as a self-starter, and is able to lead teams of volunteers to serve in Childrens Ministries.

Requirements

- A college degree is preferred but work experience can be substituted.
